SOCIETY

THE warm wave of the past week has set society on the move at last, and all the soft frocks and lace bonnets so carefully planned for some young man's woful undoing will have a chance on the boardwalks of seaside resorts and in the ballrooms of mountain inns. So many Richmond people have gone abroad this spring that one scarcely believes there are enough petticoats left in town to cheerfully adorn the top step of the front porch and the front seats of the few machines that have not "motored to Canada, or the Passion Play," and other quite accessible places. And yet, with all the rush to foreign parts, the watering places along the coast and the mountains of Virginia have opened with remarkable fine bookings for the season. Of course, a great many people "really couldn't be so heartless as to neglect their husbands and their cats" by shutting up shop and going away for a space, so it really looks as if we were really going to have a very little season of our own right here in a very simple and informal sort of way.

For the next few weeks there will be a breathing spell, anyway. The schools have all been properly closed with "college chant and rite," and many of the brides happily married for the rest of their existence, or not, as the case may be, and last, the beautiful, exclusive new Country Club opened with such a handsome round of events that its success as a feature in the social world is assured beyond a doubt; the Hermitage managed to have their tournaments in spite of the weather, and Saturday the Westmoreland Club will carry a large portion of society to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for the Fourth of July. A number of outings to the beach have also been planned, and as the days of the old-fashioned "shoe box" of lunch has by no means become a memory, any number of small boys will acquire the tan of an old sea captain forty years before the mast, in the space of twenty-four hours and return anon, entirely happy.

Almond-Hills Wedding.
A wedding of much social prominence in Kentucky, celebrated at the home of the bride in Paducah at 8 o'clock last Tuesday evening, was that of Miss Blanche Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hills, and Saunders Mann Almond, of Baltimore, Md. The beautiful home was decorated in masses of white sweet peas and bride roses, with a background of palms and smilax. The mantels were banked in white flowers and a garland of smilax and sweet peas wound the balustrade of the staircase with a graceful bouquet of bride roses, tied with white ribbon at the newel post. The ceremony took place in the library between two windows banked with smilax and draped in white buds, and the ushers, George Dubois, Edwin J. Paxton, C. Douglas Bagby, Robert Wallace, Stewart Snott, David D. Koger, stretched the aisle of ribbons from the stairway across the reception hall. The maid of honor, Miss Helen Hills, who directly preceded the bride down the steps, wore an effective gown of blue embroidered tulle, with trimmings of real lace of the same tone, draped over pale blue satin, and carried a French bouquet of pink orchids tied with blue tulle ribbon. W. S. Johnson, of Baltimore, was the groom's best man.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore an imported gown of ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines, and trimmed with quantities of rose point and duchess lace. Her veil was adjusted with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of white orchids and lilies of the valley. A large reception followed the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. T. W. Burwell. Mr. and Mrs. Almond left on a private car for Nashville, from which place they will go on an extended tour of the West. They will be at home after August 1, at their apartments in the Avalon, Baltimore.

The bride was educated in Virginia and has a number of friends in this city, and the groom formerly made his home in Lynchburg, and is prominently related throughout the State. The out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Miss Ethel Almond, Lynchburg, Va.; William Almond, Lynchburg, Va.; W. E. Johnson, Baltimore, Md.; Richard Rumsey, Lake Forest, Ill.; Walter Iverson, St. Louis; Miss Belle Lincoln, Lapeer, Mich.; Miss Marie Bell, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Miss Eva Louise Taylor, Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. C. G. Potter, Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. John Swift Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hills, Murray; Mrs. Duke Pett, Princeton; Mrs. William McElroy, Princeton.

At the Woman's Club.
The Woman's Club from 5 to 8 o'clock to-morrow afternoon as usual. These teas have been among the social features of the June season in Richmond, and have been very charming affairs. The room is prettily decorated for the occasion, and altogether it is a most attractive place to spend an afternoon.

The following is a partial list of the books to be discussed by the Literary Round Table next winter: "Wives' Tales," "A Modern Chronicle," "England and the English," "Character," "The Blue Bird," "Christianity and the Social Crusade."

Tennant-Williams.
The church of Holy Trinity Church yesterday morning at half-after 10 o'clock, the Rev. J. J. Gravatt officiating, Miss Mary Bruce Williams, daughter of the late Charles U. Williams, of "Strawberry Hill," near Richmond, became the bride of W. Brydon Tennant.

The ceremony took place very quietly, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. Mr. and Mrs. Tennant went North, and on their return will be at home at "Strawberry Hill."

Prominent Wedding.
A very pretty wedding was celebrated in the parlors of the First Baptist Church last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Alberta Gwathmey, daughter of the late Dr. William Gwathmey, of this city, became the bride of Linnaeus Nash Palmore, also of Richmond. The ceremony, which was performed by Dr. George W. McDaniel, pastor of the church, and Dr. Weston Bruner, of Washington, was witnessed by only the immediate families and a few intimate friends, owing to recent mourning in the bride's family.

Full palms and white flowers decorated the improvised altar and lighted candles and roses were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. Weston Bruner, of Washington, was her sister's dame of honor, and only attendant. She wore a becoming frock of soft white mull, hand-embroidered and trimmed with Irish lace, and carried a shower of Richmond roses. Wilson M. Gilmer was the groom's best man.

The bride entered with her matron of honor, and wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine and trimmed with rare old lace. Her tulle veil was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmore left at once for Natural Bridge, Va., where they will spend their honeymoon, and on their return to Richmond about July 15, they will make their home at 100 East Cary Street. Mrs. George R. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Weston Bruner were among the out-of-town guests for the wedding.

Guest of Relatives.
Major, prominent manufacturer of Charleston, S. C., who has been the guest of relatives in Richmond for the past few days on his return from New York City, has gone to Charleston. Mr. Reed is a former Virginian, and a native of Charlotte county. He is a graduate of Hampden-Sidney College, and has a number of relatives in Richmond.

At the White.
Dr. J. Garnett Nelson, who left Richmond a few days ago in his automobile, has arrived at the White Sulphur Springs, where he expects to remain for some time. Dr. Nelson will have charge of the practice at this resort until the arrival of the resident physician, Dr. Robert C. Bryan.

Going Abroad.
Mrs. James P. Cannon will chaperone a very attractive party abroad for several months this summer. They will sail from Philadelphia on July 8, and will land in Antwerp, spending most of their time on the Continent. It is mainly a walking tour, and it is expected they will witness the Passion Play and go to Rome for the opera, most of the time will be spent in tramping in the Alps. The party will include Miss Ella Binford, Miss Martha and Addie Chambliss, Mrs. Harry Hickey, and Miss Minnie Bolton, all of Richmond. Miss Binford expects to study under several famous dancing masters while abroad. They will return to Richmond about September 8.

House Party at Cape May.
Mrs. Patterson, of Germantown, Pa., will give a very attractive house party for the Fourth of July at her cottage at Cape May. Some of her guests will be Miss Alice Ridgely, of Baltimore; Miss Ethel Jones, Miss Margaret Whitman, Miss Nellie Lee, Homoselle Whitman and Lloyd Whitman.

Mr. Skinker Entertained.
Mrs. Charles Skinker, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is the guest of Mrs. Frederick Valentine, at 900 Park Avenue, has been much entertained during her stay in Richmond. Several informal affairs have been given in her honor, and Mrs. Jane Blair was hostess of a very attractive garden fete last week at her home in Albemarle county. About forty guests were present.

Returned from Lexington.
Misses Louise Richardson, Katherine Hagan, Elizabeth Taylor, Page Grymes and Mary Johnston, who have been attending the balls at Virginia Military Institute the past week, have returned to Richmond. Carlets Nelson Ingram, Morgan Keith, Foster Witt and James Watkins have also returned from Lexington, Va.

Visiting Here.
Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Martin and Miss Evelyn Martin, of Stuart, Va., are registered at Murphy's Hotel in this city. Dr. Martin is secretary and treasurer of the Medical Examining Board, and Mrs. Martin and Miss Evelyn Martin are both former students of the Woman's College here, and have a wide circle of friends in Richmond.

Of Interest Here.
A recent Georgia paper pays a very pretty compliment to a former Richmond woman, Mrs. William Reed McCall, who was Miss Lillian R. Taylor, of this city, before her marriage. Mrs. McCall has recently been elected second vice-president of the Woman's Club in La Grange, Ga., and has been prominent in society circles of that city. At a meeting of the club held a few days ago, Mrs. McCall read a charming paper on "Wonderful Gardens of the Sea," which was published in full in the La Grange paper.

At Forest Hill.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Orsain, of this city, are spending several months at Forest Hill. Their son, Cadet Dupont Geizer, of the Virginia Military Institute, returned to Richmond last Friday and has joined his parents at Forest Hill for the summer.

Home Wedding.
Tuesday morning, June 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the residence of the bride, 29 North Main Avenue, Richmond, Va., was solemnized the marriage of Miss Jennie Lee Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beverly Blair, and Dr. Henry Adrian Brady, of Wytheville, Va.

Miss Anna Blair, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, and she was groomed in white silk with a black picture hat and carried sweet peas. William Peterkin Blair was the groom's best man.

The bride wore a traveling suit of wisteria blue, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. She entered with her uncle, W. T. Smoot, who gave her away.

Rev. Philip A. Arthur performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Brady immediately for a Western trip, and will return to the city about July 1.

Free Remedy for Weak Bowels.
There are two forms of bodily cleanliness, the external and the internal. The one is for your pride and health, the other for your life and health. Both are important, but of vastly more importance in the long run is the internal cleanliness.

This is one point that all should watch about their body—the cleanliness of the bowels. Keep them clean and free from obstruction. To do this you must have one or two movements of the bowels each twenty-four hours. If your bowels are sluggish, and you are in the process of eating and drinking, then you must obtain aid of some kind. After finding out that cathartics, pills and such things relieve you for a day, but blind you up worse than ever the next day, then try a simpler and more natural remedy—Luzianne Coffee.

For the skeptical the best way to begin is to send your name and address to Luzianne Coffee Co., and get a bottle. Use it as directed and if it convinces you that a brief continuance of its use will relieve you permanently, then you will want to get a bottle, and buy it just as so many others are doing. They began with a sample bottle, then bought a fifty-cent bottle, and now, fully convinced of its merits, they buy the one dollar family size. All the members of the family can use it down to the very youngest.

A brief use of this grand laxative will cure constipation in its worst form, indigestion, liver troubles, sick headache, sour stomach, and such ailments, and keep you in continuous good health at a very small cost. Such is the experience of many famous physicians, and of Dr. F. P. Daniel, of New York, and hundreds of others that could be named.

Dr. personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family, pertaining to the stomach and bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample bottle, send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address in care of W. B. Caldwell, 527 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.
